

Amazon Wildlife Scavenger Hunt
For use with the Amazon wildlife section

Name _____

1. The brown three-toed sloth spends up to _____ hours per day hanging upside down from tree branches sleeping. Unlike most mammals, it cannot maintain its own _____ (like a reptile).
2. The Amazon River dolphin, also known as the _____, are reported to be quite curious of people and have even been known to play tag-like games with them.
3. The _____ - inch long claws of the great harpy eagle may be larger than those of a _____.
4. The powerful bill of the hyacinth macaw, the world's _____ flighted parrot, is used to crack the huge _____ that form the bulk of its diet.
5. Depending on the location, jaguars may be _____, diurnal, or nocturnal.
6. The keel-billed toucan, called the _____ in Belize, is said to sing like a _____.
7. The famous artist _____ was known to keep an ocelot as a pet!
8. The capybara is the world's largest _____. It may use mud as a form of _____ to protect it from getting burned.