

Piranhas

Name _____

The piranha is a kind of fish with sharp teeth and strong jaws. They live in the Amazon River in South America. There are about 20 different kinds of piranhas that live in the Amazon River. They are small fish, but are very aggressive. They mostly eat weak or sick animals. They hunt in big groups, but piranhas will not eat other piranhas. They are strong and powerful!

1. Where does the piranha live?

- a. in lakes and streams
- b. in Canada
- c. in the Amazon River
- d. in the ocean

2. Piranhas are small and aggressive fish. What does 'aggressive' mean?

- a. nice
- b. big
- c. ugly
- d. they might attack other fish

3. Will a piranha eat another piranha?

- a. Yes
- b. No