

Women of the Civil War Scavenger Hunt Version Name _____
For use with the Women of the Civil War section

1. Belle Boyd was a _____ for the Confederate Army. She was known as _____. She became angry at Union soldiers when they tore down a Confederate _____ that hung in front of her mother's boardinghouse.
2. Harriet Tubman made sure to travel on the Underground Railroad on _____, because runaway notices in Southern newspapers were published on _____.
3. Dorothea Dix is most famous for being the _____, her life's mission was to build hospital and improve conditions for those classified as _____.
4. When Mary Todd Lincoln married Abraham Lincoln in 1842, she gave up a life of _____ in Kentucky for one of _____ (at the time) in Illinois.
5. Which of the Women of the Civil War were nurses?
6. Harriet Beecher Stowe's famous novel, _____ opened the world's eyes to the horrors of slavery. It was only outsold by the _____ among books in the 19th century.
7. When Clara Barton convinced the United States to agree to the Geneva Convention, it resulted in the formation of the _____ in America – an organization devoted to providing relief for victims of natural disasters, wars, and diseases.