

Camels

Name _____

Camels are neat animals.
Some camels have one hump on their backs.
Other camels have two humps.
Baby camels do not have any humps.
The hump grows as the camel grows up.

Some camels live in the desert.
Camels can go a long time without water.
People used to think camels stored water in their humps.
This is not true.
Camels do not store water in their humps.

Camels are very smart.
They can carry people.
When many camels travel together, it is called a caravan.

1. Which sentence is true about camels?

- a. They have three humps.
- b. They live in the ocean.
- c. Camels store water in their humps.
- d. Baby camels are not born with a hump.

2. Where do camels live?

- a. in the ocean
- b. in the desert
- c. in the rain forest
- d. in the North Pole

3. When many camels travel together, this is called a _____.

- a. caravan
- b. train
- c. line
- d. parade