

George Washington Cloze Reading for Grades 4-6 Name Directions: Fill in the correct blanks George Washington was one of the most people in United states history. Not only was he one of America's great leaders, but he was an
of the federal government, Chairman of the Constitutional Convention, and of course, America's first president. Today, George Washington is throughout America. His face on both the United States quarter and one-dollar bill. Furthermore, his monument is one of the most in America, and cities, towns, and schools are named for him. We even have a state named after him!
Words:
recognizable appears military advocate
honored
important numerous
symbols