

M R N U S S B A U M
A THOUSANDS IN ONE

AN APPEAL TO HEAVEN

Appeal to Heaven Flag

A variation of the New England pine tree flags, the “Appeal to Heaven” flag was used by George Washington in the fall of 1775. This pine tree represents the “liberty tree,” a large tree that the Sons of Liberty would gather under before uprisings. The phrase “Appeal to Heaven” represents the divine power that the Patriots believed would guide them to victory over the vaunted British military.