

Birds of Prey Scavenger Hunt V2 (to be used with the birds-of-prey exhibit)

Name _____

1. Peregrine falcons have been clocked at speeds of up to _____ miles per hour during a _____ - a situation where the falcon freefalls toward its prey from above it.
 2. In Native American lore, the common raven is considered a _____. Ravens are not actually birds of prey. At up to 27 inches in length, they are actually the world's largest _____.
 3. Two famous red-tailed hawks named _____ and _____ once nested atop a New York City high-rise apartment building.
 4. Some people claim the northern saw-whet owl is so tame that allows itself to be _____.
 5. Although turkey vultures use their powerful sense of _____ to find carrion, king vultures find carrion by _____.
 6. The screech owl comes in two phases: _____ and _____. The _____ phase is the more common of the two.
 7. Which of the three eagles profiled is largest? _____
- A. Which of the three eagles eats sloths? _____
- B. Which of the three eagles lives in Europe and Asia?
