

United States Capitol Cities Scavenger Hunt (Version 1). For use with the United States Capitals Scavenger Hunt

Name _____

1. Phoenix is America's _____ capital city.
2. Columbus, named after the famous explorer Christopher Columbus, was formerly named after _____, because its founder admired him.
3. Nashville, sometimes called _____, is home to the Country Music Hall-of-Fame and _____ University.
4. _____ was the hometown of Andrew Johnson, America's 17th president who was sworn in following the assassination of Abraham Lincoln. It was named after the sponsor of the 1587 "Lost Colony."
5. _____ is the home of the United States Naval Academy. It very briefly served as the capital of the entire country in 1783.
6. _____ was actually once called Pig's Eye Landing! It was eventually named after a local church. Today, it is one of the "twin cities."
7. _____ is the smallest of America's capital cities, with little more than 8,000 people.
8. Numerous skyways connect the buildings in downtown _____ to help people brave the region's brutally cold winter temperatures.
9. _____ is America's eleventh largest city. It has an interesting motto: Keep _____ Weird. It serves as the world headquarters for Whole Foods and Dell Computers.