

For use with the U.S. Government Interactive Chart

1.) The Legislative Branch of the U.S. Government is a _____ entity. This means it is made up two houses: the _____ and the _____. The Legislative Branch is often called simply _____.

2.) The Attorney General is top officer in the United States Department of _____.

3.) The United States Department of _____ is responsible for making sure those who served in America's military, and fought in American wars, are given benefits, loans, medical care, and insurance.

4.) The United States Department of the _____ is responsible for America's finances, monetary (money) policy, as well as producing America's coins and paper money (currency).

5.) The vice-president of the United States serves as the president of the _____. In addition, the vice-president is the chairman of _____.

6.) The United States Department of the _____ is in charge of America's national park system.