

Endangered Species Scavenger Hunt

1.) The head color of the California condor actually changes from white, to pink, to orange depending on its _____.

2.) The diet of the giant panda consists almost entirely of _____.

3.) Red pandas are _____. This means they are active at dusk and dawn.

4.) Black rhino horns are sold in countries such as Yemen, so they can be made into _____. In other nations, the horns are sold for high prices and made into _____.

5.) Populations of Bengal tigers have declined dramatically over the past decades as tiger parts and bones are in high demand for _____.

6.) In 2005, the Cornell University Department of Ornithology confirmed that an Ivory-billed Woodpecker has been found in the _____ of Arkansas. Unfortunately, follow-up attempts to photograph or document the bird were unsuccessful.

7.) The blue whale is so large that its tongue could hold _____.

8.) Because of rampant habitat destruction, deforestation and poaching, there are thought to be about _____ Philippine Eagles left in the wild on four different islands.

Answers:

1. emotional state
2. bamboo
3. crepuscular
4. dagger handles; medicine
5. Chines traditional medicines
6. Big Woods
7. Four people
8. 800