

Directions: Fill in the correct blanks

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. fought for the _____ of African-American people. In 1963, he _____ his most famous speech to over 250,000 people in _____ of the Lincoln Memorial in Washington, D.C. It became known as the “I have a Dream” speech. In his speech, he called for an end to discrimination. Discrimination is the _____ of _____ people differently or unfairly _____ of their color, religion, age, gender, culture, or beliefs. King’s “dream” was that all people would be _____ equally and that all people _____ come together as Americans.

Words:

front
treated because rights
would gave practice
treating