

Postcards Across America – National Parks Project

Instructions – Visit the MrNussbaum.com or MrN 365 National Parks Interactive Map. Click on the different national parks and identify four of your favorite. Pretend you are on a tour of America’s national parks and a fictional postcard from each of your chosen national parks. Include a colorful drawing and brief information about the parks. Below is an example.

Dear Dad,

Arches National Park is really beautiful. It is located in Utah. It is full of amazing rock formations. You can walk through some like Delicate Arch pictured here. Did you know Arches is part of the Colorado Plateau? Gotta Go!

Love, me
