

Idioms Scavenger Hunt

For use with the Idioms Interactive Picture

1. What idiom means that you should be grateful for gifts you receive and shouldn't try to find things wrong with them?
2. Which idiom means that life is better when you try different things?
3. Which idiom teaches to let things happen naturally, rather than trying to control things?
4. What idiom teaches that if you ask for a favor or charity, you shouldn't be picky about what is given to you or how it is given?
5. What idiom means that a situation or problem has been forgiven and that it's time to move on?
6. What idiom means that if you are wronged by someone, it is not permissible to do the same thing back?