Dear Mom,

I have had a really good time at camp. I have learned how to pitch a tent, swim the backstroke, play four square, and to use a compass. I have also met many new friends. Alex is from Richmond, Virginia, and Mikayla is from Cleveland, Ohio. Mikayla and I have the exact same birthday: June 23, 2005. Anyway, I still have two more weeks to go. There is a big celebration here on Independence Day. I hope everyone is doing great at home. I will write again soon.

Your Son,

Jack
