

State Birds Scavenger Hunt

Name _____

For use with the U.S. State Birds Scavenger Hunt

- 1.) The cardinal is the state bird of _____ different states and the mockingbird is the state bird of _____ different states.
- 2.) The brown pelican, state bird of _____, is the largest of all state birds.
- 3.) The American robin, state bird of Michigan, Wisconsin, and Connecticut may eat up to _____ earthworms per meal!
- 4.) The _____, state bird of _____, is the only woodpecker to be honored as a state bird.
- 5.) Unlike most birds, the American Goldfinch nests in the middle of the _____ rather than early in the spring.
- 6.) The state birds of _____ and _____ are the only two states to honor non-wild birds.
- 7.) The roadrunner, state bird of _____, is actually the largest member of the _____ family.
- 8.) Both the state birds of _____ and _____ honor birds that start with "California." The first state is obvious, but the second is less so.
- 9.) This beautiful black and orange treetop-dweller has a professional baseball team named after it. It is the state bird of _____.
- 10.) The hermit thrush, the state bird of _____, is known as one of nature's finest songsters.