

World Landmarks Scavenger Hunt V1
For use with the World Landmarks Interactive Map

Name _____

1. Italy's Leaning Tower of Pisa "leans" because it was built on unstable _____.
2. India's massive Taj Mahal was said to have required the work of _____ people.
3. The Treasury is Petra's most famous structure. It was called "The Treasury" because people believed an _____ on top of the structure contained great riches.
4. According to Pliny the Younger, who was supposedly a witness, the cloud of ash that rose from Mt. Vesuvius and descended upon Pompeii, Italy, in the year 79, was _____ miles high.
5. The Great Wall of China is sometimes called the _____ because so many people died building the 3,900-mile-long wall.
6. Big Ben is the largest four-face clock in the world. Its hour hand is _____ feet long and its minute hand is _____ feet long.
7. The Statue of Liberty was actually a gift of _____ from France to celebrate America's 100th anniversary.
8. Mt. Rushmore, located in the _____ of South Dakota, features the heads of Abraham Lincoln, George Washington, Thomas Jefferson and _____.